

ALLIED HERITAGE UNDERWRITERS GROUP

SPECIAL INVESTIGATIONS // FORENSIC CLAIMS DIVISION

AUDIT REF: AHU-M90-0318-CONF | JURISDICTION: COMMONWEALTH OF MASS.

EVIDENCE FILE

SERIOUS CRIME LOG

[INCIDENT TIMELINE & ACCESS ASSESSMENT]

DATE OF INCIDENT: Third weekend of March, 1990
ENTRY RECORDED: 01:24 AM (confirmed by internal sensor log)
ELAPSED TIME: Approximately 81 minutes total on premises
ACCESS POINT: Side entrance facade, adjacent to secondary drive
PERPETRATORS: Two (2) adult males disguised in municipal authority uniforms

[SECURITY CHECKPOINT BYPASS]

Per internal review, entry was permitted directly through the secure access door when the sole on-duty guard at the desk was persuaded by the intruders. The individual on duty was subsequently questioned extensively by federal art theft investigators but was never criminally charged. Case remains active.

Subject Badge Record: [REDACTED] [SEALED BY INVESTIGATING AGENT]

[CATALOG OF LOSS — MAJOR WORKS]

ITEM A-1: Dutch Golden Age maritime canvas (~160 x 128 cm). Cut from ornate gilt frame and rolled. Primary focal piece of Dutch room.
ITEM A-2: 17th-century interior scene panel (domestic concert). Removed with frame.
ITEM B-1: Series of French Impressionist works on paper (Degas sketches).
ITEM C-1: Ancient Chinese bronze ceremonial vessel (Gu beaker).

[INVESTIGATIVE DISPATCH NOTE]

"The entire world remembers the empty frames hanging on the gallery walls. Millions of dollars in stolen heritage, and thirty-five years of dead ends. But the true pivot point was the young man seated at the security desk who pushed the button at 1:24 AM.

His name is in every investigative archive, interview transcript, and documentary film produced on this robbery. Find who was sitting in that chair."

MISSION DIRECTIVE:

Determine the full legal name of the on-duty security guard who opened the door.

FLAG FORMAT: flag{Firstname_Lastname}